The StarPhoenix

Greg Pender, The StarPhoenix

Nicholas Goplen (left) of B.C. rounds a corner during the Canadian junior speed skating championships Friday at the Clarence Downey Speed Skating Oval. The junior championships and Canada Cup II meeet, hosted by the Saskatoon Lions Club, continue throughout the weekend. Competition begins at 9:30 a.m. today and Sunday. Goplen is from a long line of skaters. His father Gary, his uncle Gordon, his grandmother Henrietta and another uncle, Craig, all skated with the local club and are inducted into the Saskatoon Sports Hall of Fame.

SPORTS

Riders open season July 1

Blades chillin'

Football Dogs moonlight as sunshine boys

Pine players in Florida for all-star game vs. U.S.

CUTTING CORNERS

Mickelson accused of exploiting rules

Daly declares he is finished; "I just can't do it anymore"

City hosts speed skating event

The StarPhoenix (Saskatoon)
Fri Jan 29 2010

The Saskatoon Lions Speed skating Club gets out its welcome mat this weekend for competitors from across the country.

The club is playing host to the Canada Cup II/Canadian junior championships at Clarence Downey Speed Skating Oval.

Competition begins today at 10:30 a.m., and starts Saturday and Sunday at 9:30 a.m.