

SPEED-SKATING

Skaters compete in the 100-metre final in the Ladies' Team age class at the SaskEnergy long-track speed skating championships on Sunday at the Mount Pleasant speed skating oval.

Regina Long Track Speed Skating

The Leader-Post (Regina)
Mon Jan 24 2011
Page: C6
Section: Sports
Column: Local Roundup
Source: Leader-Post

Regina speed-skaters Ashlee Holmes, Taylor Leugner, Allan Carnegie and Michal Willfong each finished first in their respective categories at the Regina Speed Skating Club's final in-province long-track speed-skating competition this weekend at Regina's Mount Pleasant Oval.

Skating in the Olympic style, Holmes won in female all-around, Leugner won in female sprints, Carnegie won in male all-around and Willfong won in male sprints.

Skaters will be using their times at the Regina competition to qualify for the Canadian age-class championships, Feb. 5-6 in Winnipeg.

For more speed-skating results, see Local ScoreBoard.

WESTERN HOCKEY LEAGUE

Hurricanes cane lacklustre Pats

By GREG WATSON
LEADER-POST

The Regina Pats didn't show much fight in their 4-1 loss to the Hurricanes on Sunday night. The Pats were out of sync from the start, and the Hurricanes were in control from the beginning.

More news

► Regina's hockey team is on the move

Page C6

The Pats were out of sync from the start, and the Hurricanes were in control from the beginning. The Pats were out of sync from the start, and the Hurricanes were in control from the beginning.

for the only time this season as a 2-1 win for the Hurricanes. The Pats were out of sync from the start, and the Hurricanes were in control from the beginning.

"I think the Hurricanes did a great job of controlling the game," said Hurricanes coach Bob Murray. "The Pats were out of sync from the start, and the Hurricanes were in control from the beginning."

Regina's Pats were out of sync from the start, and the Hurricanes were in control from the beginning. The Pats were out of sync from the start, and the Hurricanes were in control from the beginning.

Regina's Pats were out of sync from the start, and the Hurricanes were in control from the beginning. The Pats were out of sync from the start, and the Hurricanes were in control from the beginning.

"I think the Hurricanes did a great job of controlling the game," said Hurricanes coach Bob Murray. "The Pats were out of sync from the start, and the Hurricanes were in control from the beginning."

Regina's Pats were out of sync from the start, and the Hurricanes were in control from the beginning. The Pats were out of sync from the start, and the Hurricanes were in control from the beginning.

OPENING

Packers did just enough to win

By GREG WATSON
LEADER-POST

The Regina Packers did just enough to win their 2-1 victory over the Hurricanes on Sunday night. The Packers were in control from the beginning, and the Hurricanes were out of sync from the start.

"I think the Packers did a great job of controlling the game," said Packers coach Bob Murray. "The Hurricanes were out of sync from the start, and the Packers were in control from the beginning."

Regina's Packers were in control from the beginning, and the Hurricanes were out of sync from the start. The Packers were in control from the beginning, and the Hurricanes were out of sync from the start.

The Hurricanes were out of sync from the start, and the Packers were in control from the beginning. The Hurricanes were out of sync from the start, and the Packers were in control from the beginning.

More news

► Regina's hockey team is on the move

Page C6

The Hurricanes were out of sync from the start, and the Packers were in control from the beginning. The Hurricanes were out of sync from the start, and the Packers were in control from the beginning.

Regina's Packers were in control from the beginning, and the Hurricanes were out of sync from the start. The Packers were in control from the beginning, and the Hurricanes were out of sync from the start.

The Hurricanes were out of sync from the start, and the Packers were in control from the beginning. The Hurricanes were out of sync from the start, and the Packers were in control from the beginning.

Regina's Packers were in control from the beginning, and the Hurricanes were out of sync from the start. The Packers were in control from the beginning, and the Hurricanes were out of sync from the start.

Regina Pats goalie, Damian Kubit, has trouble handling the puck as Lethbridge Hurricanes' Shea Kubit (right) in on Saturday night at the Western Centre.